VILLAGE PEOPLE

Something is always slightly... off.

George Sorel Group Productions · Star Studded Realty Group · FL RE #SL3472560

THE CONCEPT

"Bernard Hanson" (in costume) knocks first: "Scarlet's sick, but her team is here." The three David Devilles arrive — Grant Cardone, David Bromstad, David Visentin — each with their significant other. Jim Carrey drove them. Scarlet (a licensed FL celebrity, masked, voice-changed) directs from Star's brokerage. Neil deGrasse Tyson watches the tempo from Houston. If a David gets recognized, they say "I have a closing" and leave. The next David walks in. The clients never get an explanation. Something is always slightly off.

THE CELEBRITY SCARLET PIPELINE

Recruit: FL celebrities volunteer for a real estate study program — filmed from day one.

Blind study: Star teaches one closed-circuit classroom session. She doesn't know her students.

Science team: Expert reality TV learning scientists oversee the study and optimize for passage.

Exam: Actual FL RE licensing exam. DBPR issues a real license.

Identity rule: If Star recognizes a celeb, that celeb is disqualified from the session.

Costume rule: Women dress as they want. Men present as a redhead.

After show: Every licensed celeb retains a position at Star's brokerage — FL or GA.

THE SUCCESSION RULE

Exit line (all Davids): "I have a client at closing — I have to take this." They walk to the van. The next famous assistant steps in — same alias, same earpiece, same show. Recognition risk: Bromstad high (boomers/HGTV) · Visentin medium (daytime) · Cardone low (millennials only).

PRODUCTION FORMAT

Camera: Body cameras only. No crew. Live feed to Star's office.

Host: Bernard Hanson knocks first. "Scarlet's sick." 3-county rule from Sissy.

Control room: This episode's Scarlet + Star watch feed; Scarlet directs via voice changer.

Driver: Jim Carrey. In costume. Leaves if identified.

Tempo: Dr. Neil deGrasse Tyson (Houston). "Houston, we have a problem."

Post: Michael George Sorel Jr. — AI data capture, DaVinci Resolve, creative direction.

Episodes: Sprint · Slow Burn · Persuasion · The Trifecta

"Bernard Hanson" — Co-Producer / Host

First Contact at Door · In Costume · 3-County Rule from Sissy

Ashton Kutcher. Knocks first. "Scarlet's sick." Co-producer but CANNOT be within 3 counties of Sissy, cannot hear her voice — ever. If contact occurs, he is removed.

Sissy Bestie — Co-Producer

Runs the Show · No Contact with Bernard Hanson · Former Law Enforcement

EP hands off terms — after that it's her show. Can hire co-producers. Ashton cannot hear her voice. If reluctant, may have been told it's a law enforcement sting.

Michael George Sorel Jr.

Executive Producer · Post · AI Streaming Data · DaVinci Resolve

Not on camera. Watches from post, scrubs streams, gives creative direction. Has a team. Final cut is his call.

Sylvester Stallone

Charity Czar · All Disbursements

Network writes the checks. Stallone delivers them. Every charity payout goes through him.

Star Williams

Broker of Record · Blind to the Full Setup

Pitched by pros. Teaches a blind classroom — doesn't know her students. Legally culpable for whoever Scarlet is this week.

Jim Carrey (in costume)

Driver · The Cooler · On-Set Coach

Drives the Davids. Always in costume, never ID'd. Gets mad and leaves if anyone suspects him.

"David Deville" — David Bromstad

Root Paul Ice · Stump Grinder · Boomer-Recognizable

Highest ID risk with boomers — HGTV's guy. In Root Police uniform. Brings his SO. If sussed: "I have a closing." Replaced by next David.

"David Deville" — Grant Cardone

The Closer · Knuckleboom · Low Boomer-ID Risk

Boomers don't know him — he's the millennials' sales teacher. Incognito in costume. Brings his SO (Elena Cardone). If sussed: "I have a closing."

"David Deville" / Bob Katz — David Visentin

Mini Bobcat · Love It or List It · Brings Mrs. Katz

His SO (real or fictional — Hilary Farr) plays Mrs. Katz: only unmasked field cast. If sussed: "I have a closing."

Chip Diamond — "Rooster"

Wildcard · Hidden Camera · Family Segment · Fill-In

Network pays on ratings. Only reined in by Sissy or Scarlet. Replaces any David if needed.

Dr. Neil deGrasse Tyson

Tempo Director · Houston Command Center

"Houston, we have a problem." Tracks speech rate & velocity per David. Keeps show equanimous.
