

VILLAGE PEOPLE

Something is always slightly... off.

George Sorel Group Productions · Star Studded Realty Group · FL RE #SL3472560

THE CONCEPT

"Bernard Hanson" (in costume) knocks first and explains Scarlet is sick. The three David Devilles — all using that alias — arrive next. Jim Carrey drove them and is waiting in the van. This episode's Scarlet (a licensed Florida celebrity, masked and voice-changed) is directing the field from Star's brokerage office via earpiece. The clients are being sold a house. Also some tree work. Nobody has told them any of this. Something is always slightly off.

THE CELEBRITY STUDY PIPELINE

Step 1: Florida celebrities recruited. Filmed studying for FL RE license from day one.

Step 2: Star teaches one blind closed-circuit classroom session. She does not know her students.

Step 3: Scientists expert in reality TV learning environments oversee the study process.

Step 4: Actual FL RE licensing exam. DBPR issues a real license.

Identity rule: If Star recognizes a celeb, that celeb is disqualified from the session.

Costume rule: Women dress as they want. Men present as a redhead.

After the show: Licensed celebs retain a position at Star's brokerage — FL or GA.

PRODUCTION FORMAT

Camera: Body cameras only. No crew. Live feed to Star's office.

"Bernard Hanson" — The Host

Scarlet's "Husband" · First Contact · In Costume · Cannot Contact Sissy

Meets clients at the door first. Cover: "Scarlet's sick but her team is here." In costume. Nobody knows it's him. No interaction with Sissy — ever.

Michael George Sorel Jr.

Not on camera. Writes terms. Hands show to Sissy. Logs footage, AI data capture, final cut. No post-handoff contact with Sissy.

Never seen or heard. Former law enforcement. EP sets terms then exits. Sissy operates everything. Can hire co-producers. No contact with Michael or Bernard Hanson.

Sylvester Stallone

Charity Czar · All Disbursements

Network writes the checks. Stallone delivers them. Every charity payout goes through him. Pitch target.

Star Williams

Broker of Record · Blind to the Full Setup

Pitched by pros. Teaches a blind classroom session without knowing her students' identities. Legally culpable for Scarlet — whoever that is this week.

Jim Carrey (in costume)

Driver · The Cooler · On-Set Coach

Drives the Davids. Always in costume, never identified. Gets mad and leaves if anyone suspects him. Only Sissy knows.

David Deville (Grant Cardone)

Root Paul Ice (David Bromstad)

Assistant A · "Root Police" · Stump Grinder

Least prominent David. His female co-star from his show plays Mrs. Katz — only unmasked field cast member.

Chip Diamond — "Rooster"

Wildcard · Hidden Camera · Family Segment · Fill-In

Network pays on ratings. Only reined in by Sissy or Scarlet. Sub for any David.

Dr. Neil deGrasse Tyson

Tempo Director · Houston Command Center

"Houston, we have a problem." Tracks speech rate, walk velocity & close speed per David. Keeps show equanimous.
